

Determining Your Bookstore Charge Benefits

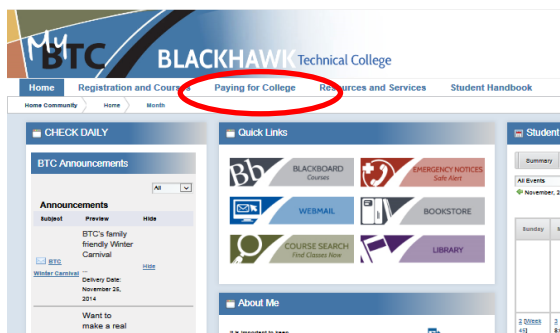

1. Login to MyBTC from the BTC home page (www.blackhawk.edu).

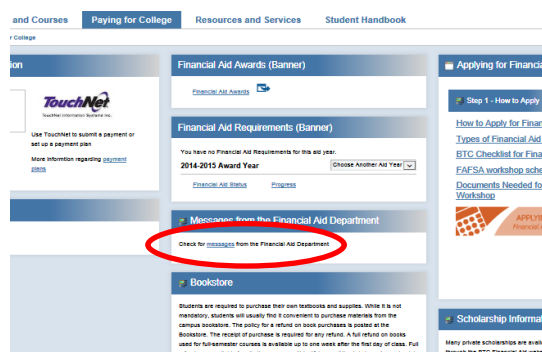

2. Enter in your user name and password.

3. Click on "Paying for College"

4. Click on "Messages" under Messages

5. Your message will show you how much you can use at the bookstore.

Personal Information Student Financial Aid Employee

Search Go RETURN TO MENU SITE MAP HELP EXIT

Messages 2012-2013 Award Year Student ID

Messages that are directed to all financial aid applicants, or to you personally, display below. You can reply to a message via e-mail by clicking Respond.

Message	Date Posted
You are eligible to charge only books and supplies needed for your courses at the bookstore. The amount charged at the bookstore will be repaid through a deduction from your PELL, WHEG, SEOG and/or student loans. If you are found to be ineligible for financial aid after purchases you have made, it will be your responsibility to pay any charges that are on your account. Your current term maximum is: $700	Aug 03, 2012

Select Another Aid Year

[Respond] Overall Financial Aid Status]

RELEASE: 8.5

The amount indicated here is the beginning balance. This figure is NOT updated each time you charge at the bookstore. Remember: only books and supplies are to be charged.

If you are in need for additional funds for the bookstore, please stop by the Financial Aid Office.