Online Databases

(NOTE: All of the following databases are available through the library's website.)

BadgerLink

- Badgerlink contains EBSCOhost, 33 databases that provide indexing for articles.
- EBSCO databases include Consumer Health Complete, Health Source – Consumer Edition, and Nursing and Allied Health Collection Basic.
- Link to this site is available at the library's home page under "Online Reference Materials"
- Wisconsin residents may link directly at this address: <http://www.badgerlink.net>

Career and Technical Education (another EBSCO database)

- Emphasis on trade journals
- Open library web page; then click on "Article Search."
- Includes full text coverage of more than 500 titles, including Dental Economics, Journal of Allied Health, Journal of Dental Research, and RDH.
- Career and Technical Education

CINAHL (also an EBSCO database)

- Cumulative Index to Nursing and Allied Health Sciences
- Provides indexing of over 1200 professional journals in nursing, 17 allied health disciplines, and health sciences librarianship; coverage dates back to 1981.
- Does not offer as many full text resources as other indexes but is more complete than other indexes in the number of nursing and allied health titles it includes.
- Open library's web page; then click on "Article Search."

SIRS Government Researcher and Reporter (a ProQuest database)

- Full text articles in the social sciences
- Directories of federal agencies
- Great topic lists linked directly to articles; writing help tools; and pro/con arguments.
If you're not a strong writer, this is the site for you!!!

Health Reference Center Academic (a Gale/Infotrac database)

- Searches by subject, not keyword; searches organize articles by topic and subtopic.
- Find the link to this database under “Article Search” on library’s home page.
- Health Reference Center Academic

Films on Demand

- A direct link to this collection can be found on the library’s main web page, or click on “Online Reference Materials,” and scroll down.
- Includes +22,000 films, streaming online 24/7 for BTC students
- Under the subject “Health & Medicine,” a search using the term “dental” will provide access to more than 114 films.
